

Living Collection

The Living Collection is an exhibition space dedicated to the Living Art Museums collection, archives and history. It is a white space, situated right in front of The Living Art Museums offices, in Völvufell 13-21, 111 Reykjavík. Inside the space there is a large desk for research purposes, right beside the museums archives. The ceiling height is 2,75 m (2,43 in the doorway) and the floors are grey concrete.

The Archives- and library shelves are 3,34 in length and between 60 and 75 cm wide (height 2,40)
